4 The name of the petitioner is — Narasimha Somayaji and the name of the person to whom an allowance of Rs 5/- p.m has been sanctd to be paid from the Sivaganga temple funds for the maintenance of "Agni Hotra" is Narasimha Sastry. If necessary it will be ascertained from the Dy: Comr whether the two persons are different from each other or one & the same.

5 As for precedents, it will be seen from Mny 60 of 1896-7 that sums of Rs 300 & Rs 125- were specially sanctd from the Muzrai Funds in 1896 and 1897 for Varuna Japam in Bangalore City.

But the rains having in the meantime set in the question was dropped.

7 The specific object with which the ceremony in question is proposed to be performed ~~by~~ has not been stated by the petr, except that he says that it will be performed for the country's prosperity.

There is nothing of public significance in the Agnihotra and Kratu excepting what is common to all yajas and Agnihotras, that the gods being pleased bestow their favours on the Sacrificers. The Kratu unlike various yajas is intended mainly for the spiritual benefit of the performer.

The Kratu is enjoined upon Agnihotris though it is not essential to the maintenance of the Sacred fire. As the Agnihotri is paid out of the Sivaganga Temple funds Rs 5 a month for maintenance, it may not be inappropriate to give a grant for the performance of the Kratu. It appears to me that Rs 300 is the lowest sum that can be thought of in that connection to be paid only when the man is ready to commence the Kratu
